Inbetweeenies

McTavish le 40 7in

Emily le 60 8 inches

Beechnut le 35 8 in

The above three Inbetweeenies are being closed at the above stated edition sizes. While I would loved to have been able to make more, they were running so late and therefore eating into the production for new items in 07 so thus they will be small editions. On paper they are all sold out BUT sometimes we have Stores who do not take their back order, so if you would like to order one please contact your local store.

In the next Newsletter I will be including pictures of two new store Exclusives for `Just Bears N Stuff`, and the third in the `Lewis & Clarke` series for `Ravenscrest Mercantile, MT.

Club Sign In page

Club Members have been keen to get their sign up information for their login to the Club page. At the present time the only thing in there is the last Doodle BUT as soon as I complete the next Doodle I will certainly put that up too. We will in the next few weeks be sending you an email as to what to do, we will also be sending the information with your next Doodle.

We have some new things coming out in January. They will not all Release at the same time. We will certainly show them at the trade shows and stores will order but in some cases it will be a while for the items to all be available and shipped to the stores. I did promise a sneak look at something so here it is `Bunny Wheels`

I have all my sketch books from my designs over the years. My boys when they were young used to take them and draw in them too. I opened one up the other day and found an awesome carrot car, drawn and designed by Charlie. I could not resist using it in this design—I love it. So, rabbit design by Deb, carrot car by Charlie.

Birmingham Spring Fair England

I will be attending and showing at the Birmingham Spring Fair, this is strictly a trade show. We will be in Hall 5 C24—so please visit. We will have the new Dollshouse, Deb`s Little Gems` our new `Life`s Little Monsters` collection and all our our mohair pieces Including new dragons.
