

Disney Teddy Bear and Doll Event—17-21st May

I always really enjoy this event every year. I have been late getting my auction piece for the event completed. I swear it takes me as long to photograph it as it does to make it, photography on miniatures is difficult.

~Dragon Dreams~ pictured below includes a pink mohair mouse, a teeny dollhouse sized mouse, a white mohair bear and a light grey dollhouse rabbit. I have included another picture on the next page which gives you a close up of the main characters. The dragon is neat, he is made from ultrasued but I have covered his body in various colored tissue papers and then used fabric medium to make it part of the fabric of the piece. It took me a while but it was more fun than painting him and I liked the ~scaly skin~ effect. The Mr Moon is made from 100% wool felt.
