

Newsletter December 2006

We have several events coming up in the early part of the year 2007.

Firstly, the International Teddy Bear, Doll & Antique Toy show to be held 13th January at the Scottish Rite Masonic Center, 1895 Camino del Rio South, San Diego, CA. From 1pm -2pm I will be hosting a Deb Canham

Tea Party. It will cost $20 to attend and there will be beverages, cookies, Deb Canham goodie bags, prizes and a chance to see next years new pieces.

Pictured right is Polly Put the Kettle On a new Deb's Little Gem. She is a limited edition of 75 And will be offered first to all those who partake in the Tea Party Event.

Pictured left is Choo Choo, a brother for last years girl Ping, he is 3.75 inches, mohair and limited to 50 pieces and available from the Bear Shop, Totnes, England who attend and sell at the above show in San Diego.

Then we have 19th -21st January, Orlando, Florida the Idex Show. Friday is a trade day but collectors are welcome to visit on Saturday and Sunday and see all the new dolls and bears. Check out www.idexshows.com

I had planned to put a piece in the auction at the Idex event but alas I was unable to complete the task in time due to my trips to my Dad, who is very poorly,

Debs Little Gems

Every month we pull out two names from all those registered to receive information on the new and retiring Deb`s Little Gems, we also include all of our Club Members. This months winners for the Deb`s Little Gems are Oso Mania and Bridgit Sutana both receive a free piece. We will be sending out an updates newsletter to all those registered regarding New `Deb`s Little Gems` and announcing the retirement of `Acorn the Squirrel` at 125.

Message Board

We also draw out 2 winners from everyone who has posted on the Message Board during the month and they also receive a free piece each. This months winners were Patti Booth and Linda Harrison,

New Product for 07

I am just in the process of informing stores about `new product` for the early part of the year. It always works best when we inform the stores first and the collectors second. In the next couple of weeks I will add a January Newsletter (New Product for early 07)

Birmingham Spring Fair England

I will be attending and showing at the Birmingham Spring Fair, this is strictly a trade show. We will be in Hall 5 C24—so please visit. We will have the new Dollhouse, Deb's Little Gems' our new 'Life's Little Monsters' collection and all our our mohair pieces Including new dragons.

'Fairies' these were released last year and I have not added to them

April Fairy

August Fairy

July Fairy

December Fairy

Mai Fairy

October Fairy

yet, this year. They each have hand dyed Mohair tummies. Measure 3.75 inches and are limited to 200.
